[科目の概要]

Essay writing in English may be different not only from essay writing in Japanese, but even from other writing in English. This course is designed to take college-level students with an intermediate ability in English as a foreign language from paragraph writing through essay writing. During this course, students will have many opportunities to learn how to organize topics, write cohesive paragraphs, and organize them into clear, logical expository compositions. The focus throughout is on academic writing — the type of writing used in college courses and exams in English-speaking institutions of higher learning.

この授業では、英文パラグラフの構造を学び、paragraph writing から Essay writing へ繋げます.

[「授業科目群」・他の科目との関連付け]・〔なぜ、学ぶ必要があるか・学んだことが、何に結びつくか〕

Writing is a skill and a very important part of studying English. The more you practice, the better you will be. During this course, students will have opportunities to study and discuss examples of English academic writing. Students will also have many opportunities to discuss their own writing and the writing of their classmates. Additionally, students will learn how important the reader is to the writer and how to express clearly and directly what you mean to communicate. Although this is a writing course, students practice their reading and analytical skills as they progress through this course.

英文パラグラフやエッセイの構造を知ることは、リーディングにも役立ちます。また多くの英文エッセイ・レポートに触れることにより、分析力の向上にも繋がります。

[科目の到達目標(最終目標・中間目標)]

At the end of this course, students should be able to write a structured essay in English.

[学生の「授業評価」に基づくコメント・改善・工夫]

The various components of this course will be introduced, based on the student's progress in class.

〔学修の課題、評価の方法〕(テスト、レポート等)

Students will be graded on attendance, participation, quizzes, reports and final exam. Additionally, students are expected to produce original essays. Simply copying examples will not result in a passing grade.

[評価の基準及びスケール]

A=80% or more

B=70-79%,

C=60-69%,

D=50-59%,

F=less than 50%-

〔教員としてこの授業に取り組む姿勢と学生への要望〕

- 1. Students should come to every class with energy and a willingness to work and learn.
- 2. Students should hand in every report and essay.

The teacher offers you ample opportunities for practice and will try best to help you gain confidence in writing academic prose.
